A Sketch of His Life.

Andrew Shuman was born Nov. 8, 1830 in Lancaster county, Pa., of old Dutch stock. He received a common school education, and at the age of 14 was apprenticed to the printing business in the office of The Lancaster Union and Scutinel. He continued working at the newspaper business until 1850, when he determined to rocure a more complete education, and during the year prepared himself to enter Hamilton college, which he did in 1851, where he continued until the fall of 1853.

Services Over the Remains of Ovid. N. Y. He remained in charge of that paper until July, 1836, when he became assistant editor of The Chicago Evening Journal, finally becoming its head. In 1855 he married Miss Lucy B. Dunlop, of Ovid. N. Y. He has one daughter, who married Mr. I. M. Elliot, of Chicago. Mr. Shaman held several important public offices. He was commissioner of the Illioffices. He was commissioner of the Illinois state penitentiary at Joliet from 1865 to 1871, and in 1876 was elected lieutenant governor of the state.

> His Work as a Journalist. The best years of his life were devoted to The Evening Journal. After the death of Charles L Wilson, president of The Journal company, in 1878, Mr. Shuman was elected president of the company, controlling interest in which was held b Mrs. Wilson and her daughter. In March, 1880, Mr. Shuman and John R. Wilson, a nephew of the former to aprie-tor, leased The Journal from the company. During 1883 the company was reorganized with Mr. Shuman as president. About a year ago Mr. Shuman retired from active participancy in the management of the paper with which he had so long been identified, but retained his financial infuse to Leave the Burning Building and Are Roasted to Death-A Disastrons Cyerty-Other Mishaps.

CHICAGO, May 6.—The following was re ceived here Tuesday atternoon:

MONTHEAL, Que., May 6.—The insane asylum near here is burning to the ground and in an hour nothing will be left but the is said, in a cupboard in the middle wing of the structure. At present as near as can be calculated there are from 160 to 150 insane inmates in the flames who will be burned to death. The fire apparatus is inadequate to control the Hames. The sight in the grounds surrounding the institution beggars description. Hundreds of luna tics are grouped there, gibbering, and in a frenzied condition. The nuns are going among them trying to allay their cries and they are being removed to places of shel-ter. The Montreal fire brigade have arrived and are at work.

Refused to Leave Their Cells. No estimate can yet be made of the number of lives lost. Those who perished were in the wards on the top floor. A doctor connected with the institution said there was very little commotion among the inmates when the alarm was given, and the greater number walked our quietly; some, however, stubbornly refused to leave their cells, and had to be taken out by force. Those rescued are bilieted out among the different institutions and houses in the vicinity. The roll will be called as soon as possible and then the missing will be learned. All the books and records were saved. Two firemen from Montreal named Lambert and Dolan had narrow escapes, from a ladder and were injured.

"I understand this committee intends to adjourn within a short time after baving received testimony here that would cast a cloud upon the people of Conway county and retire to the city of Washington for the purpose of making their report," contimed Armstrong.
"I think that is quite probable," said Mr.

Lacey.
"I insist that this committee shall subporna witnesses from the people of Conway county--from among the good people of Conway county-to refute the charges that have been made by this infamous and vil-slander,"

No sooner had Mr Armstrong uttered these words than Judge McClure sprang from his seat and struck the Conway county attorney in the face. The court room was packed, and everybody was on

OFF HIS BASE.

The H-D informs us that "the McKinley bill, which is to be taken up in the House this week, will be enacted. It may be amended or improved but it will form the tariff legislation which the republican party will carry through."

The above has an authoritative ring about t. It sounds like Wiggins when he undertakes to tell what he doesn't know about next week's weather. But we would like o know where The H-D editor got his information? We cant imagine that Rowell would give a tip to any concern with which Jason is connected in a posing capacity. The president of the H-D left town some weeks ago, but we were informed that he went to Europe, and not to Washington. In fact we don't know anyone in Washing ton who would be likely to post the people of Decatur about probable legislation There is some evidence that the Washington people think they have done their full duty to Macon county patriots when they go around and shake them by the hand just be-The H-D get its information?

An exception is made in the early closing movement for Saturday evenings and will soon take up his residence here. There are a great many serenaders this year in Cerro Gordo. Almost every night several companies of these—festive persons are out, traveling the streets and cousing the sleep-loving people to wonder why there ere not more men put on the night police

Several of the young people of Cerro Gordo were out riding on Sunday evening and were thus caught in the heavy rain.
They would have greatly preferred to keep the matter quiet, but when the country people began coming in to town on Monday proves that the early closing custom does not morning bringing with them hats and eye lessen the sales of goods. On the contrary glasses that had been left behind, the before let it once become generally known that mentioned parties were compelled to "acknowledge the corn."

Admitted to Probate The will of Mrs. Cynthie Roberts, de reased, was probated yesterday. It is dated March 11, 1886, and disposes of about $5500 worth of property. All the househole goods, jewelry, etc., are left to larry A Roberts. 'The balance of the estate is to be converted into money, and the latter to be loaned. The interest is to be divided, onehalf annually to Lucy A. Roberts The other half annually to Alice N. Roberts. In case of the death of either lady, provisions are made for the disposition of the interest to all. money due her, and the will also stipulate that in case Lucy A. should die without heir a part of the money shall go to the Home Mission society and Foreign society of the Presbyterian Mission church. James T. Roberts is made executor, and has qualified in bonds of $10,000.

The Lecture To-Night, The lecture of Dr. Thompson at the Universalist church to-night will, no doubt, prove a rich literary treat. Prof. W. A. Humphrey of the Indiana Scate Normal school at Covington, Indiana, says of his lecture there: "In our lecture courses here we have had the pleasure of hearing Headley, Bun, Ridpath, Sanford, Howard Henderson, Eli Perkins, Joseph Cook and many other lecturers of national reputation but the ablest, the most scholarly, and the most eloquent fecture of any of them was delivered here last night on the Evolution of American Liberty by Dr. Jerome Thompson of Decatur, Illinois."
